

The aims and objectives of COMESA as defined in the Treaty and its Protocols is to facilitate the removals of the structural and insitutional weaknesses of Member States so that they are able to attain collective and sustained development.