

A country cannot belong to more than one Customs Union unless the two or more Customs Unions have the same CETs, trade policies and customs regulations and procedures.