

The 8th COMESA Business Forum is on!!! we hope all of you have been accredited!

For those of you who have not had a chance to get accredited, please visit Munyonyo Common Wealth Resort today Monday 19th November 2012 to get your tags, take your personal identification with you. All other information packs and the COMESA Business Magazine will be provided on the first day of the forum.

The program is packed with so many interesting sessions - check it out here . Look out for the B2B sessions - download this to facilitate business matching. We are expecting over 200 delegates from the member states ---book your slot to make a deal by filling in this -

Business to Business Meeting Registration Form

Business to Business Meeting Registration Form

, leave them at the registration desk as you register on 20th November 2012.

The Gala Night Cocktail - will take place on 20th November 2012 at 7:00 pm local time, do not miss it.

The Regional exhibition starts today 19th to 24th November 2012 - its a "must attend" for all delegates, come and see what the private sector is producing-make a deal or place an order!

The Presidential Summit is on for the 24th November 2012 - approximately 200 delegates from the Private Sector will be given an opportunity to attend the opening of the Heads of States' Summit - i hope you are all registered with PSFU!

Private Sector Foundation Uganda has dedicated today Monday 19th November 2012 as the last registration date ;-Registration will be done at the PSFU Kampala office while accreditation will have to be done in Munyonyo (on the same day); the fee is USD 200- for Ugandan delegates, Rita on 0779-627-265 for details.

Please Note: All registered Delegates who did not get accredited at Serena Hotel during the course of the week can get accredited in Munyonyo Common Wealth Resort today Monday 19th Nov 2012.

On behalf of PSFU we wish you fruitful deliberations!