

A Russian Bank – VNESHECONOM BANK has expressed interest in investing in various sectors ranging from Transportation, Energy, agriculture and technology and many more in the COMESA region.

VNESHECONOM BANK Southern Africa representative Andrey Saratov said his bank is willing to invest in the COMESA region because of the vibrant economic atmosphere that is currently prevailing in the region. Mr. Saratov said that his bank is eager to provide support to the promotion of Russian business in Africa especially on specific developmental projects in the region so that there can be technological transfer from Russia to the COMESA region.

Click on the clip below for more details

{flv}Russian Bank to Invest in COMESA{/flv}